

K9 Unit Management & Liability Mitigation

VohneLiche Kennels, (www.vohneliche.com), is proud to present K9 Unit Management & Liability Mitigation, a 24 hour course designed to enhance your canine unit's effectiveness through education and management principles. The course will encompass handler and canine selection to Use of Force and Search and Seizure issues to preparing for defense of an alleged canine based 4th Amendment violation.

Topics Covered:

- Handler selection
- Training standards
- Training non-canine personnel
- Certifications
- Public relations and the K9
- Tactical use of K9
- 4th Amendment and legal basis for apprehensions
- Search & Seizure
- Failure to train
- Vicarious liability
- Record keeping
- Report writing
- Court testimony
- FLSA
- Administrative issues.

The course will be presented by Mr. Rob Walker, Legal Counsel for Vohne Liche Kennels. Mr. Walker brings 30 years of legal, Leadership and Management training experience to Vohne Liche Kennels. Rob is a retired police officer specializing in training and constitutional issues.

Rob has been an adjunct instructor at Vohne Liche Kennels since 1994 and full time at VLK since 2010. He has taught over 5000 police officers in various subjects since 1988.

Mr. Walker possesses a Juris Doctorate and a Bachelor of Science in Administration of Justice.

K9 Unit Management and Liability Mitigation is a must for K9 trainers, supervisors, command staff and handlers. This course is certified for law enforcement credit hours in Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio.

The cost for this course is $1500.00.

Dates: April 4-6, 2017
Aug 29-31, 2017
Nov 21-23, 2017

To register email Rob at dirofadmin@vohneliche.com or call 765-985-2274.